DESTINATION HIGHLIGHTS

LA PAZ

READY TO START YOUR JOURNEY?

When arriving on board, the crew will be awaiting you to enjoy a Welcome Cocktail full with local specialities. The Paz is the gateway to the Sea of Cortez and also a peaceful city with a wonderful climate. Besides being the capitan of Baja California, it will still remain a quite harbor you will love.

We especially recommend the bay of La Paz, to seek out the whale shark (prominent in the months August, September and October) where you will be able to snorkel along them.

The Bay of La Paz, is considered the crown jewels of the islands, one of the premier destinations for diving and snorkeling in the world, thanks to its many reefs and biodiversity. It offers every activity you can possibly imagine. Whether you are an adventurer or a casual observer, the natural settings, rich history and the Sea of Cortez provide you with an infinite amount of fun, adventure and relaxation...

ESPIRITU SANTO

The Holy Spirit Island is known for the existing contrast between the fiery color of the volcanic rocks and the turquoise blue of the sea. A paradise to be discovered doing kayak or snorkeling. Here you will find a variety of fish such as: angelfish, wrasse, morish idiols, the chameleon-like, trumpetfish, and more.

BAHIA BALANDRA

Where the still waves and crystalline waters are ideal to start scuba diving in between the beach's rocky formations and the underwater caves.

LOS ISLOTES

LA LOBERA

These islands are home to the Sea Lions colonies, a sight to admire. A collapsed sea cave known as La Lobera, a sea lion haunt, is one of its kind. You can observe them from the boat or snorkle toward shore until the you sea lions and the females swim out from the rocks to play below you . Guests can dive with sea lions if previously arranged.

Swim through the arch where orange fan and white fire ooral sway in the current and sea horses cling to ribbons of seaweed.

Spend the night in Ensenada Grade which, according to Travel Magazine, has the most beautiful beach in Mexico, in the morning yo can have breakfast on board, soak in the sun or enjoy kayaking to discover the beautiful sites.

SAN FRANCISCO ISLAND

Make your way to San Francisco Island which was one homeland to gold miners and pearl prospectors. Rocky colored and inclined cliffs are the characteristics of the landscape.

BAHIA AMORTAJADA

To be explored, Bahia Amortajada, keeps a beautiful lagoon where it is possible to snorkel or kayak along the reef. This is the largest mangrove lagoon on an island in the Sea of Cortez. Perfect location to admire a huge amount of pelicans soaking in the sun and dipping in the lagoon waters.

SAN JOSE ISLAND

PUNTA COLORADA

It is one of the most gorgeous islands with its rocky colored which adorn the coast. Various bird's species have taken refuge in teh island such as the pelican, the heron and fish hawks. What has attracted them is the great estuary of the mangrove. It is unique to find such density in an otherwise desert location, the green of the mangrove really stands out from the brown of the hills.

You can jump right into it to explore the canals which lead to a lagoon of about 2 km width - here you can listen to nature and silence as the only sounds are the bustling wildlife around.

DEL CARMEN ISLAND

The island is home to ghost towns like Bahia Salinas to be discovered. Del Carmen Island is also a wildlife conservation area with 15, 000 private and protected acres. Thsi paradise allows intense nature coexistence, it is also a wonderful place for birdwatching, you may find everything from yellow legged seagulls to fish hawks or peregrine falcon. Here you can enjoy doing some sportfishing, snorkel, kayak, diving or mountain biking while admiring the marvelous scenery.

SAN EVARISTO

This unknown gem is a small home for fisherman around the bay, close to salty water damns. These fishermen depend on the sea for everything and use traditional methods.

Close to the village is a beautiful secluded beach which is the ideal site to enjoy tranquility and security. Realish the experience with you family and loved ones, accompanied by a unforgettable sunset. This will provide you with an unforgettable holiday memory.

MONTSERRAT ISLAND

Beautiful beaches and is a perfect place for snorkeling, swimmin, etc. From here you can gent an amazing panoramic view of Sierra de la Giganta Walk and explore the great sights for landscaping and photography enthusiasts. Further on explore the great caves located along the sea.

CABO SAN LUCAS

EL ARCO

Once just a placid fishing village at the very tip of Baja California, Cabo San Lucas has blossomed into one of the world's most famous spots for celeb sightings, grand scenery, sunning and snorkeling that's unparalleled, and of course, parties.

Restaurants offer steals on excellent seafood or Mexican fare - many allowing you to bring in your own catch of the day so they can grill it for you. And for those with a set of wheels, it's easy to escape the tourist zone and surf in secluded beaches, shop in quaint art towns, visit nature's most pristine deserts, jagged mountains, or dive in coral reefs in the Sea of Cortez.
